MYSTERY IN GIRLS DEATH

OFFICERS STATE THEY ARE PLEDGED TO SECRECY

Since the remains of Mildred Stan, who died at Pittsburg Saturday, were shipped to Gilroy Monday night, developments are said to have taken place that has caused an intense activity on the part of the sheriff's office of this county.

After the death of the young lady, her remains were taken to the undertaking parlors of Henry Nuttman at Pittsburg, and a certificate of death was issued by Dr. L. A. Bouter to the effect that death was due to chronic constipation.

Just what is back of the entire matter it has not been possible to ascertain at this time, as everyone seems to be sworn to secrecy.

When Nuttman was called up over the telephone and asked about the matter he replied that he could give out no information as he had orders to "keep his mouth sealed."

Later the sheriff's office was called, and Deputy Larkin stated the matter was being kept quiet but that Sheriff Veale and his chief deputy W. W. Veale were out working on the case. When asked if any arrests had been made in connection with the case he replied "Not yet, but there may be tomorrow."

It is very evident that the developments that have taken place, come as the result of the arrival of the body at Gilroy. The girl was 25 years of age, and was a clerk in the California confection store at Pittsburg.

From the information that has been secured, action will probably take place today that will cause a sensation in the town in the upper end of the county.

MUCH WINE BEING MADE BY RESIDENTS RICHMOND

From all reports there is a greater market for grapes this year than every in the history of viticulture, and the grapes are bringing unheard of prices.

It is stated that in Richmond alone that one dealer has sold twenty-five carloads. In a car load there are fourteen tons and as each ton of grapes is said to be good for about 140 gallons of home-made wine, there has been scold in Richmond already "the makin's" for 49,000 gallons of wine.

A Napa dealer quoted a price of $105 a ton F. O. B. to one local produce man and this is believed to be the lowest F. O. B. price at which grapes have yet been offered this season. Most of the grapes being offered in the local market are being brought from the Lodi district and the growers there are asking—and getting—$115 a ton F. O. B.

The wine grape season is now nearly at its height. Wine grapes have only been offered locally for about a week. Conservative estimates of dealers place the amount that will be sold in Oakland this year at 500 carloads.

With wine grapes at this price wine can be manufactured at home in one's spare time for about $1 a gallon, it is said. Inasmuch as the wholesale price of the bootlegger's product is about $4 a gallon, the saving amounts to $3 a gallon for those who just must have their wine.

WILL TOUR HARBOR

On Saturday afternoon it is planned to take all lieutenants engaged in the harbor bond campaign, for a tour of the inner harbor water way so that a study of the great possibilities to be gained from the bond issue now under way.

It is expected that the "Maggie" a new boat launched by the Richmond Navigation and Improvement Company will carry the workers over the entire circuit, the trip lasting about an hour. This will be the initial trip of the new freighter.

All of the lieutenants will assemble at the Chamber of Commerce at 2 p. m. where automobiles will be in waiting to take them to the boat landing. The trip will be made under the auspices of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

Charles W. Foy Makes Visit To Industries of the City

Charles W. Foy, industrial representative of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce spent yesterday in Richmond guest of the local Chamber. Foy accompanied by Secretary J. W. Wallace visited the harbor site, the Municipal Wharf, Standard Oil Company, Western Pipe & Steel Co., Pacific Sanitary Company, Certainated Products Company, Pacific Porcelain Products Company, Pullman Shops, California Cap Company and Stouffer Chemical Company plants. In all of these data was obtained as to the number of employees, where they lived and other items of industrial importance. The greatest credit is due to Standard Oil Company according to the report made by the visitors, for the plan for taking care of employees. It was found that Gen. Manager Brooks is maintaining a system of community bargaining which today is being duplicated in many of the large factories of the country, but after it had been tried out and proven successful in the Richmond plan. At the Pacific Sanitary Company plant, and the Pacific Porcelain Products plant considerable surprise and interest awaited the visitors when it was found that the products from these places were distributed throughout the world and locally occupied the center of trade in the markets. Foy declared that the intense value of Richmond industrial should be known world wide, and that Richmond was to be highly commended upon its fine climate, and all favorable conditions to attract manufacturing plants.

Mr. Foy was entertained at lunch at the Elks Club by Harry Marcus.

CHAMBER COMMERCE PLANS MANY THINGS BETTERMENT OF A GREATER RICHMOND

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce last night financial matters and the program of general work of the Chamber were taken up and discussed with the result that the organization is now entering a new era of activity under a strong directorate and body of workers such as has never been in evidence in Richmond before.

President Pierce has made his initial effort to put the right spirit into the working force of the Chamber, and elected unanimous support in his plans for a greater Chamber of Commerce and greater Richmond.

Secretary Wallace who entered the work upon a temporary agreement was retained for the ensuing months and will push forward with his efforts acting under President Pierce.

and the director with a renewed vigor and with the hearty support of the Chamber.

It was announced that financial support for the Chamber of Commerce is in the cards from the City of Richmond and from the county it being shown that the Chamber had assumed a place of importance in the promotion of the affairs of the city and environs as well as Contra Costa county.

An extensive publicity campaign has been fixed so that Richmond will be better known in the world of commerce and will occupy a place of credit in the state and national organizations for promotion work.

No action was taken by the board in the city and county of Richmond subject, it being decided that the campaign along this line should rest until after the bond election.

It was shown that approximately $900 had been received in the Chamber since July 15th, and that bills to the current month September 1st had been properly met.

There will be a call made for payment of membership dues now in arrears and for new members as well as for supporting affiliations of the industries of Richmond and of the county.

The meeting was adjourned to the regular forum lunch event which occurs at Martin's Grill this noon. Every business man and members of the Chamber of Commerce is urged to attend these luncheons and help put over rail that is planned for a greater Richmond.

THINKOGRAPHS by F. J. HULANISKI

MORE GOOD THAN BAD IN PEOPLE

"Admired-kneed Delilah, a half-dressed vamp, has the United States—the modern Sampson—in her languorous, death-compelling clutch." This is a quotation from an attack on modern women's styles, delivered in sermon form by Rev. Joseph H. Krumpholtz at Philadelphia a few days ago.

Society women adopt the styles of undress for reasons very different from those for which they are adopted by the professional courtesans," he said. "Plays unabashed in exposition of nakedness are presented that rob womanhood of the aura and mystery that constituted its greatest charm and glory and that rob the home of chastity. When ever and wherever a people substitute the worship of gold for that of God, and make indulgence of animal lusts its ruling passion, its decadence has set in and its day of ruin is not far distant. Divorces have increased at such an alarming rate that one wonders whether the time has not come to discard the institution of marriage entirely."

The reverend gentleman is right, but he is also wrong, in that he judges the many by the few. The great numbers of our mothers, wives, sisters and daughters cannot and must not be judged by the wrong doings of a few hundred idiotic high society women, any more than they should be by the immoral and degenerate movie actress females who have been painting Paris crimson of late.

The average American man and woman is good at heart and has in his and her makeup a million more attributes of God than of the Devil. There is much wrong in the world, yes, but there is also much good, much kindness, tolerance, piety, truth, honor and all the things which go to constitute true and noble manhood and womanhood.

How chivalrous the cowboy is;

We are not worrying very much who is elected president, just so he does not reappoint Burleson or Palmer.

Life is just one darned thing after another. We no sooner get rich by profiteering on our neighbor than the income tax swipes half of it.

Why is joy listed as merely possible here although certain in the hereafter? Why not now and here? Too many of us discount happiness, pick out thorns, dwell on small sorrows and trudge rocky roads. Sadness is the cry of a sick soul, yet remedies are all around.

Pathe News Reel and Comedy at The Richmond

In "The Heart of a Child," a special production adapted from Frank Davenby's novel of the same name, Nastimova comes to the screen of the Richmond Theater today and tomorrow in a role that is different from any of the wide variety of characters she has portrayed so marvelously in previous triumphs.

It is that of Sally Snaps, an English girl from the slum streets of London who finds herself orphaned at the most critical period of her life, and left to face alone, without any other aid than her unsophistication, the struggle of maintaining the world respect.

In her support is an exceptionally able cast, with Charles Bryant, adapter of the novel to the screen; as Lord Kiddemister: Ray Thompson, Neil Newman, Victor Potel, Eugene Krum, Claire Du Brey, Jane Sterling, John Stepping, William J. Irving and Myrtle Risbell. Ray C. Smallwood directed the production, with Rudolph

J. Borgquist in charge of the camera. The effectiveness of the pictorial element in the play is due in great measure to the special art effects by Allen Ruff.

On the same bill is a Pathe news reels, educational reel and a comedy.

EVADING THE BOOZE LAWS

Dispatches from all over the country continue to tell of arrests made by prohibition officers of those who operate illicit stills, cafes and soft drink places which carry and serve something with more kick in it than soda or sarsaparilla, and of jail sentences and fines.

All this leads many to suppose that the law is a failure, and that strong drink can be obtained most anywhere by those who are on the inside and willing to pay big prices. Part of this is true and part of it is not. Those who make a practice of snooping around such joints and offer high enough bribes can always find men low enough to take the chances of an illicit traffic, for the sake of the large gain. This is as true of drugs and prostitution as it is of liquor, but the average citizen does not do these things and the consequences is that the average citizen is getting along without liquor, and getting along a whole lot better than he did before, with more money in his pocket, in the bank, and his family better provided for and correspondingly more contented and happy.

It has always been this way, and always will be. Murder is against the law, yet murder is committed; likewise theft and an endless array of other crimes and misdemeanors. Maine had a hard time enforcing its prohibitory law many years ago. So also did Iowa and then came Kansas, and other states, and they all went through the same process. But after a while right and the law prevails, and it becomes harder and harder to find or obtain liquor. The boys now growing up will not know when they reach manhood what a saloon is, and won't have any desire to know. Sooner or later Uncle Sam will lay his hand on the law violators, and lay it on good and heavy.

Half a dozen large American factories have moved to Japan during the past year, owing to labor conditions, the last being the big firm that makes the Thermos bottles, which employed thousands of men and women. Here is another problem to think out. If the laborers seize the factories, as they are now doing in Italy, the factories will simply shut down and then move away. Then what?

There are mummies of several Pharaohs in the Egyptian museums and they haven't had a bit of fun for a thousand years. Maybe a lot of us will be wrapped up in rags that way some day, but we all ought to use our best endeavors to at least keep from being a mummy until after we are dead.

The Russian anarchists deported by the U. S. back to their alleged Utopia were put to work upon arrival there at manual labor at the points of bayonets and they don't like it a little bit. Here they did no work harder than damming our government with their belching mouths and collected large sums from those fools enough to fall for them. It is different now. They are getting more Bolshevikism than they know what to do with, and blisters on their hands along with it.

PLACES OPEN TO WOMEN OF RICHMOND AT NEW PLANT

Pleasant positions for girls and women will be provided in the Procter-Gamble Company plant when it is operation in Richmond.

One of the good features of this manufacturing enterprise is that among the 500 to 1000 hands will be a considerable percentage of women. This city up to this time has not the number of plants it should have that employ women to any great extent.

In the packing department of the Procter & Gamble Company there will be a number of girls and women employed. They will not only be well paid, but have pleasant work and fit treatment, for which this company is noted, but can become partners, if they wish by acquiring stock. Every employee of this corporation is a stock holder.

Crisco and the other famous Procter-Gamble products will not only be made right here in Richmond, but they will be put in the packages by Richmond women.

A big sign will soon go up on the fifty-four acre site on the harbor announcing to the world that this is the Pacific Coast location of the Procter & Gamble Company. The big traffic to and from the Richmond-San Rafael Ferry passes along the boulevard, so people from every part of the state will know that Procter and Gamble Company is to establish its Western plant in Richmond.

When the copra crushing plant is in operation Richmond will become one of the biggest copra ports in the world. The mill will have a capacity of 100 tons daily. It will be a rather expensive proposition to the corporation to lighter this copra in from the steamers that bring it to San Francisco Bay, but as soon as the harbor is finished these steamers will ply direct to the terminal wharves of the Procter & Gamble Company.

The company knows what a progressive community is and it hasn't any doubts about the completion of the harbor.

SALTS IS FINE FOR KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT

Flush the Kidneys at once when Back Hurts or Bladder bothers. Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Vote "No" On Proposition No. 2 Argument Against Harris State Prohibition Enforcement Act

Proposition No. 2 on the November Ballot

Proposition No. 2 (the Harris State Prohibition Enforcement Act), does not represent true California sentiment. The measure itself is the product of the last Legislature, which absolutely misrepresented the majority wish of the people of this State on the question of prohibition.

In 1914, 1916 and 1918 California voted down prohibition by very decisive majorities. Within sixty days after the people had rejected the third attempt of the prohibitionists, a Legislature dominated by radical "dry" performed the startling feat of placing this State in the prohibition column by ratifying the Eighteenth Amendment and passing the Harris Act in California by way of enforcement.

In the rush to take advantage of a favorable Legislature, upon the personnel of which the prohibition element had worked at the preceding election, the Harris bill was devised and adopted eight months before the Volstead National Enforcement Act was passed by Congress. The grape-growing interests of California availed themselves of the right of referendum and promptly presented a widely-signed petition to the Secretary of State. This brings the question of prohibition again before the voters.

Men and women who believe in democracy in government should unhesitatingly vote "NO" on Proposition No. 2. In the annals of political history in this State, there is no more glaring perversion of the law of justice or thwarting of the will of the people than was exemplified in the passing of this particular State measure. Even a prohibitionist who would profess to love justice, would vote down this legislation with conscience clear. The observant reasoning voter really has no other course to pursue if he analyzes the facts.

Let it be explained further that this Act would forbid on this State a bone-dry prohibition from which the people of California could get no relief even if Congress in its judgment later on saw fit to modify the Volstead Act by permitting the use of light wines and beers in the home. If Proposition No. 2 becomes the law in our State, we would find ourselves under rigid radical prohibition while other states in the Union would enjoy any modifications that might come through Congress by amendment of the Volstead Act. This would make a laughing stock of California which produces ninety per cent of all the grapes grown in the United States.

Proposition No. 2, being of premature birth, is unnecessary legislation. If it becomes the law, it compels those who purchase liquor for non-beverage purposes, to obtain double sets of permits—one from the Union Liquor Control Board, and another from the California State Board of Pharmacy.

I trust the great majority of voters of this state will mark "X" opposite the word "NO" on this measure and thereby again defeat prohibition in California for the fourth time. I repeat that the proposed law is superfluous, would bar light wines and beer in the home, and does not reflect the true sentiment of our glorious hospitable California.

(Signed) E. M. SHEEHAN,
President California Grape Growers' Exchange.

Mazola fried 24½
pounds of potatoes
—lard fried only 7
pounds 14 ounces!

THAT Mazola is a better and more economical frying fat than lard has again been demonstrated. This time by Mrs. A. Louise Andrea, admittedly one of the greatest experts in modern cookery.

Mrs. Andrea found that 4 lbs. of Mazola, cooked down to 2 lbs., fried 24½ lbs. of potatoes. While 4 lbs. of lard cooked down to 2 lbs. fried only 7 lbs. 14 oz. potatoes.

Tested on fish steaks, one inch in thickness, Mazola fried 25¼ lbs., while lard fried only 16½ lbs. of fish.

Of doughnuts cut uniformly 2¾ inches in diameter, Mazola fried 208, while lard fried only 138.

This proves conclusively that Mazola goes more than three times as far as lard for frying potatoes; almost twice as far for fish; and two-thirds farther than lard in frying doughnuts.

No housewife who wants to use the most wholesome, as well as the most economical cooking and salad oil, should fail to order Mazola from her grocer today.

THERE'S ANOTHER REASON

When you see why your teeth should be kept in perfect condition—your health. Without good teeth it's impossible to masticate your food properly and so indigestion ensues and a long trail of troubles. We examine teeth without charge and do it for them exactly what they need, and our prices for the requisite work are notable for their reasonableness.

Save 17c a Day and Become a Stockholder

YOU do not need much money to start your profit-sharing account with the Western States Gas and Electric Company. You can do so for as little as 17c a day or $5 a month.

Our large family of home shareholders receive their dividend checks regularly by mail every three months. By investing in useful public service properties they receive a steady income because they have saved and put their money to work for them.

All you have to do is to save a little money each month and make systematic payments on whatever number of shares of Preferred Stock you decide upon. Interest is allowed to you on payments. There is no red tape or long winded contracts. If you cannot complete your payments, you lose nothing.

Why not plan for financial independence? Regular, systematic saving and sound investing is the only sure way.

Invest direct in efficient modern properties serving the ever-growing needs of the public. Put your money to work in your own community where it helps to build up home prosperity.
